F. Board Member Resignation

A Director may resign at any time by giving written notice to an Officer of the Board. Notice may be in any form. The matter of removal is a personnel matter and may be acted upon at any meeting of the Board of Directors. The Director subject to removal may not vote on the matter. The Organization is a private nonprofit organization and is not subject to open meetings law and government data practices. However, to comply with Minneapolis grant requirements, the Organization will generally hold all of its meetings open to the public, except when a closed session is required for consideration of legal issues, personnel issues, etc. The public version of meeting minutes from a closed session will indicate that the board went into a closed session. The Organization will maintain a record of any business decision made in a closed session but may limit access to the record to those with a legal right to be in the meeting.

O. Meeting Procedures

All questions of order with respect to any meeting or action of the Organization, its Board of Directors, or any chartered committee or task force will be resolved in any orderly manner that is deemed appropriate by the President or the committee Chair which allows for making motions and voting on business matters. - The votes cast through written action must be voted on through authenticated electronic communication (defined as communication that includes information which one can reasonably identify who the sender was. For example, a known email address, phone number, certified e-signature program, etc.).
- Once the vote is complete, all directors are given immediate notice of the text and effective date of the written action.
- Action taken under this section is effective when the vote is complete unless the action specifies a different effective date.
- Action taken under this section has the effect of a meeting vote and may be described as a meeting vote in any document.

VI. Officers

A. Election of Board Officers

Board Officers must first also be on the Board of Directors. Officers are effectively board members with extra duties. Board Officers are volunteers and are not paid for their board service. They are elected annually from the pool of seated Directors with half of the Officers up for election each year so terms are staggered.

A vacancy in any Board Officer position may be filled by a vote of the Board of Directors for the unexpired portion of the term. The Board of Directors also has the authority to appoint temporary acting Board Officers as may be necessary during the temporary absence or disability of serving Board Officers.

Term extensions may continue on a 1-year term basis, or until a replacement Officer is found.

An Officer may resign by giving written notice to any other Board Officer. The resignation is effective immediately and without formal acceptance when the notice is given to the Board, unless a later effective date is named in the notice.
